

Robert G. Gill

Senior Vice President and Portfolio Manager
Goodreid Investment Counsel Corp.
Toronto, Ontario

Robert G. Gill is senior vice president and portfolio manager at Goodreid Investment Counsel Corp., where he is also a member of the management committee. He began his investment career at BMO Nesbitt Burns and subsequently moved to the United Kingdom, where he joined Deutsche Bank's Global Investment Banking division. Later, Gill spent seven years at Foyston, Gordon & Payne Investment Counsel, analyzing Canadian, United States and global companies as director of research and associate portfolio manager for global and U.S. equities. In 2010, he joined Morrison Williams Investment Management as portfolio manager. More recently, Gill was a vice president, portfolio manager and partner at Lincluden Investment Management. He is a guest speaker in the M.B.A. program at the University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management. He is a trustee of the investment committee for the Canadian Actors' Equity Association. Gill is an instructor for the Advanced Trust Management Standards (ATMS™) course with the International Foundation of Employee Benefits Plans. He is also a frequent contributor to BNN Bloomberg TV and various media publications. Gill received his honours bachelor of arts degree from Queen's University and is a graduate of the University of St. Andrews (Scotland) with a master's degree in management, economics and international relations. He has also studied executive education in value investing at Columbia University in New York and investment management at Harvard Business School.