

Ana Alonso

Senior International Benefits Consultant
Gallagher
South Miami Beach, Florida

Ana is a senior international benefits consultant in the multinational benefits and mobility practice within Gallagher's Benefits Services division. Her primary role is advising multinational organizations in all industries on their global benefits plans. Ana has more than ten years of experience in U.S. and global employee benefits. Throughout the years, she has held a variety of positions managing U.S. employee benefits for large U.S. clients as well as managing large multinational clients, providing a broad range of solutions around global benefits, including new client implementations as well as alternative benefits financing such as multinational pooling and captive management. Ana has held management positions with teams of more than 20 colleagues as well as developed standard operating procedures for a variety of processes including client demos, employee training, captive renewal process and others. Ana is bilingual in Spanish and English and has some knowledge of Portuguese. She also holds U.S. insurance licenses in health, annuity, life and disability.