Guy Benjamin, M.B.A.

Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder
Healthee
New York, New York

Guy Benjamin is an accomplished speaker and entrepreneur with a diverse background that blends military service, academic achievements and business expertise. Born and raised in Israel, he spent 12 years as an F-16 Fighter Pilot in the Israeli Air Force. Along with his military duties, Guy earned a bachelor of arts degree in information technologies and physics from Ben Gurion University. After leaving the Air Force, he attended the Yale School of Management, then joined McKinsey & Co. as an associate partner, focusing on digital and analytics transformations for tech companies. Motivated by a passion for improving health care, Guy co-founded Healthee, a company dedicated to transforming the health care experience in America and empowering people to take control of their benefits.
