

Ivelisse Berio LeBeau, Esq.

Vice President/General Counsel
National Employee Benefits Administrators, Inc.
Pembroke Pines, Florida

Ms. Berio LeBeau has been working in the employee benefits law field for more than 30 years. In 2023, she became Vice President and General Counsel at National Employee Benefits Administrators, Inc. (NEBA), a premier third-party administrator for multiemployer benefit plans. Ivelisse started her employee benefits law career as a trial attorney in the Office of the Solicitor of the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) where she supported EBSA investigations of employee benefit plans and brought ERISA breach of fiduciary duty and prohibited transaction lawsuits in federal court against benefit plan fiduciaries and service providers. At Sugarman & Susskind, PA and later at The Wagner Law Group, Ivelisse worked as fund counsel for boards of trustees of multiemployer and other benefit plans; represented trustees, fiduciaries, participants, and service providers in federal and state court litigation and DOL investigations; provided compliance counsel on employee benefits law matters such as prohibited transaction exemptions and the Affordable Care Act; and represented employees and employers in employment law and benefit claim matters. Ivelisse is a Fellow and a member of the Board of Governors of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, an invitation-only organization of nationally recognized employee benefits lawyers. She is Editor in Chief of the Fourth Edition of Employee Benefits Law, a leading Bloomberg BNA legal book for attorneys and professionals covering different aspects of employee benefits law practice. She is a frequent speaker and author on employee benefits law topics for organizations such as the American Bar Association, the Florida Bar, and Law 360. Prior to joining the Department of Labor, Ms. Berio LeBeau was a litigation associate at Brown Rudnick LLP and served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the late Honorable Joseph P. Warner, former Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Appeals Court. She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College and of Boston College Law School. Ivelisse is bilingual and bicultural, crediting her fluency in Spanish to her Puerto Rican roots.
