

Kevin Bryenton

Executive Director of Canadian Affairs
General Vice President
International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers Peterborough, Ontario

Kevin Bryenton is executive director of Canadian affairs and general vice president for the International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental and Reinforcing Iron Workers. The Canadian office represents over 20,000 members in the construction and manufacturing sectors throughout Canada. He is currently a trustee of the Ironworker Management Progressive Action Cooperative Trust, co-chair of Regional Advisory Board 12 and administrator of the Ontario Trade Improvement program. Bryenton has worked on the development of curriculum and training standards and co-written technical training manuals for the Ironworker National Training Fund while working as a training coordinator and instructor trainer. He is a past member of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Canadian Board and the Apprenticeship, Training and Education Committee. Bryenton is an interprovincial journeyman ironworker and graduated from Queen's University with B.S.C.H. and B.P.H.E. degrees and from the University of Windsor with a bachelor of education degree.