

Kevin Campe

Principal and Consulting Actuary
Milliman Inc.
Chicago, Illinois

Kevin Campe is a principal and consulting actuary with Milliman Inc., located in Chicago. He has more than 25 years of experience in the actuarial field, including extensive experience with issues relating to defined benefit plans under the requirements of ERISA, the Pension Protection Act and the Multiemployer Pension Reform Act. Campe is actively involved with all aspects of servicing multiemployer plans, including financial projections, withdrawal liability matters, plan administration and plan design. He is currently reviewing the impact of financial relief on struggling multiemployer plans as provided in the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021.