

Jonathan M. Cerrito

Partner

Blitman & King, LLP

New York, New York

Mr. Cerrito, partner at Blitman & King LLP, counsels plan sponsors on all matters of tax, ERISA, employee benefits, nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements and the employee benefit aspects of mergers. He regularly advises on the design, operation, merger and termination of tax-qualified pension plans and welfare benefit plans. Mr. Cerrito's practice includes advising ERISA fiduciaries on the investment of plan assets, reporting and disclosure, prohibited transaction rules and tax matters. He also advises tax-exempt organizations on employee benefit issues and unrelated business income tax (UBIT). In addition, Mr. Cerrito has significant experience handling ERISA controversies with a focus on investigations by the U.S. Department of Labor concerning fiduciary matters and alleged statutory violations. He has handled over two dozen such investigations and has also been involved in audits conducted by the Internal Revenue Service and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. Mr. Cerrito was named by the Whitman School of Management of Syracuse University as one of the 2009 "40 Under 40" based on extraordinary achievement in his career and contributions to the community. He holds a B.A. degree in English from Fordham University, a J.D. degree from Quinnipiac University School of Law and an LL.M. degree in taxation from New York University School of Law.
