

Hank H. Kim, Esq.

Executive Director and Counsel
National Conference on Public
Employee Retirement Systems
Washington, D.C.

Mr. Kim is executive director and counsel for the National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems (NCPERS). He directs the day-to-day operation of the largest public pension trade association in the United States. His responsibilities include strategic planning for NCPERS, promoting retirement security for all workers through access to defined benefit pensions and affordable health care, and expanding NCPERS membership beyond the United States. Mr. Kim began his career in the office of U.S. Senator Bill Bradley (NJ). He serves as vice-chair of the Fairfax County Uniform Retirement System; chair of the Georgetown University Center for Retirement Initiatives; treasurer of the National Institute on Retirement Security; the Editorial Advisory Panel of the Benefits Law Journal; and a board member of the National Public Pension Coalition. Mr. Kim received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and his Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from Indiana University-Bloomington Maurer School of Law. He is a member of the District of Columbia Bar.