

Dr. Robert (Rob) Tanguay, M.D., FRCP, CISAM, CCSAM

Co-Founder, Developer, Vice President of Business Development and Chief Medical Officer
The Newly Institute
Calgary, Alberta

Dr. Robert (Rob) Tanguay is a clinical assistant professor with the departments of psychiatry and surgery at the Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary. He is a psychiatrist who completed two fellowships, one in addiction medicine and one in pain medicine. Tanguay is the co-founder, developer, chief medical officer and vice president of business development at The Newly Institute, a program dedicated to providing medical and psychological intervention for people living with mental health disorders such as PTSD, depression, anxiety, addiction and chronic pain with evidence-based psychotherapy and trauma-focused therapy. He has been recognized for his work as an inductee to the Alumni Honour Society at the University of Lethbridge, a recipient of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada Award for Early-Career Leadership, and a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Award in recognition to his significant contributions in the fields of mental health, addiction and pain medicine. Tanguay is involved in research in trauma, addiction, chronic pain, opioids, cannabis and psychedelics as well as a member of the Hotchkiss Brain Institute and the Mathison Centre for Mental Health Research & Education at the University of Calgary.