

Paul Van Dyne, CEBS, CCP

Director, Global Compensation and Benefits
ACI Worldwide, Inc.
Elkhorn, Nebraska

As director of global compensation and benefits for ACI Worldwide, Inc., Mr. Van Dyne is responsible for the compensation and benefits functions for 2,200 employees in 34 countries across the globe. Prior to joining ACI Worldwide in 2009, he held significant compensation and benefits positions with companies such as Mutual of Omaha, Great Plains Energy and Bank of America. Throughout his career, Mr. Van Dyne has specialized in the design and administration of innovative compensation and benefits programs. He received a B.A. degree in speech communication from Penn State University and a master's degree in human relations and statistics from the University of Kansas. Mr. Van Dyne holds the CEBS and CCP designations.