

Elizabeth (Liz) Yovich, M.B.A.

Director of Global Engagement and Employee Benefits
WBN Worldwide Broker Network
San Francisco, California

Elizabeth (Liz) Yovich joined WBN from its member firm, IMA Global Risk & Benefits. For seven years at IMA, she provided global clients with employee benefits consulting expertise and handled some of the most complex international programs. Having worked for one of WBN's member firms, Yovich brings a unique understanding of how to deliver high-quality value-added initiatives and enhance collaboration. She has been a proactive member of WBN since joining the network. In April 2021, Yovich became chair of WBN's Catalyst Group, where she led a strategic and tactical development program for a group of 200+ catalyst members. She also helped design and coordinate the new board mentorship program for graduates. Yovich has been a member of the Employee Benefits Steering Committee. She is a graduate of the University of Denver Daniels College of Business with an M.B.A. degree in health care administration and a bachelor of business administration degree in economics.
