

Mark Zigler
Senior Partner
Koskie Minsky LLP
Toronto, Ontario

Mark Zigler is a senior partner in the Pensions and Benefits Group at Koskie Minsky LLP and has over 40 years of experience. He also chairs the firm's class action committee. Zigler served as the firm's managing partner from 2006 to 2012. He advises trustees of pension and benefits trusts as well as unions and groups of employees and pensioners. Zigler has also acted as counsel in many high-profile cases and class actions across Canada involving pensions, benefits and other employment-related issues as well as major insolvency cases. He is co-editor and author of Employee Benefits in Canada, now in its 4th edition, and senior editor of the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans Canadian Legal & Legislative Reporter. In 2009, Zigler was named to the Ontario Advisory Council on Pensions and Retirement Income. In 2018-2019, he served as lead Commission counsel to the Gillese Inquiry into Long-Term Care Homes in Ontario. Zigler has consistently been recognized as a leading practitioner in the field of pensions and employee benefits by the Lexpert organization, The Best Lawyers in Canada, Chambers Global and Who's Who Legal Canada. He has also been selected to the Lexpert/American Lawyer Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada. In 2015, Zigler was awarded the Ontario Bar Association Award for Excellence in Pensions and Benefits Law. He has also served as an adjunct professor of law at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2015 and 2018. Zigler will be serving as a law professor at Hebrew University in 2023 and is also serving as an instructor annually at the Osgoode Hall Law School Continuing Education Program on Pension Law.